Business Insights:

- Electronics is the strongest category, producing 57.4% of total revenue and $55,386.17 in profit.
- East is the leading region with 28.6% revenue share, making it the best candidate for expansion and retention campaigns.
- Laptop is the highest-value product and should receive priority inventory planning before peak sales months.
- Health & Beauty trails the portfolio and needs targeted promotions, bundles, or pricing tests to increase contribution.

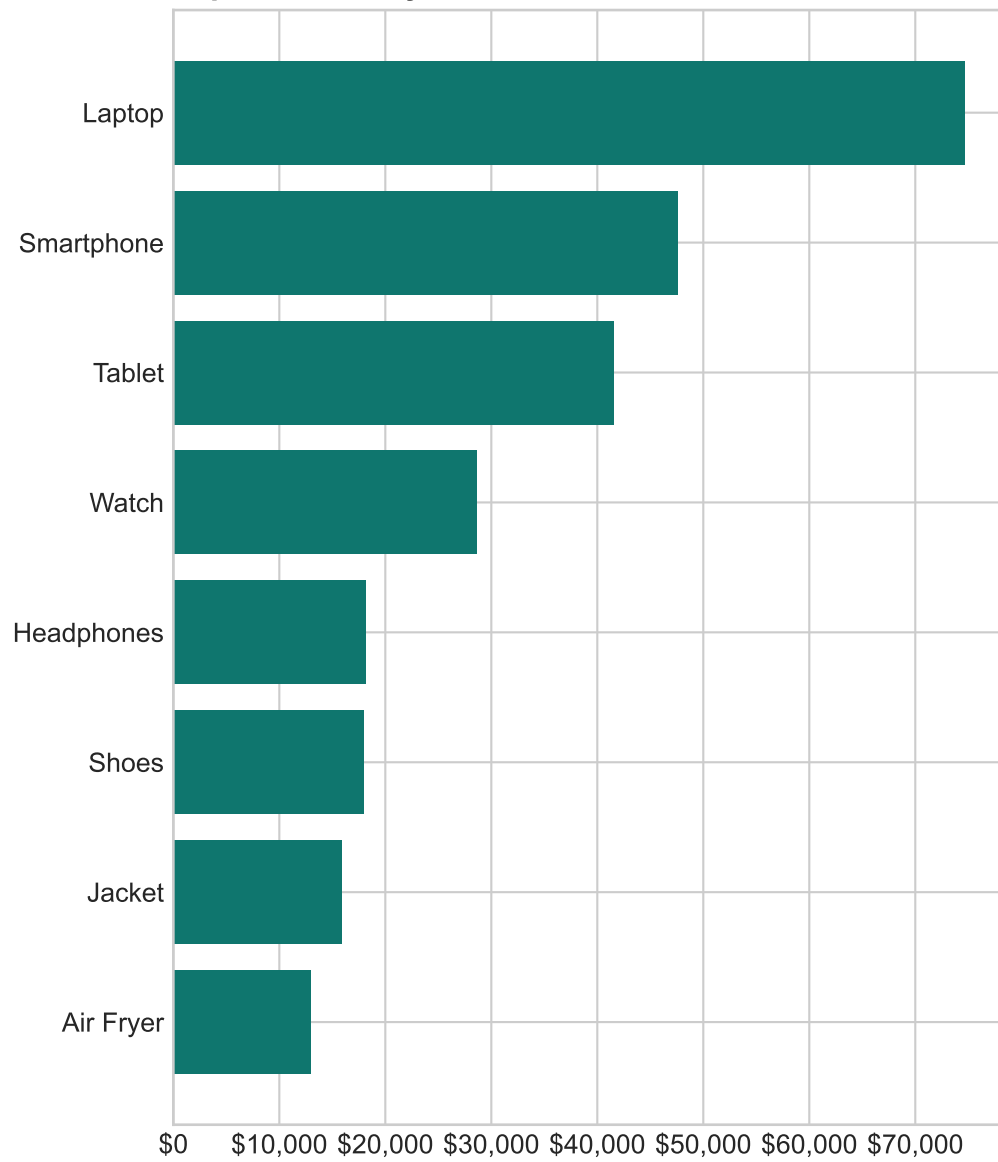

Recommended Actions:

- Protect inventory and advertising budget for the highest-revenue products to avoid stockouts during demand spikes.
- Prioritize East and South regional campaigns because they currently generate the highest revenue base.
- Build Electronics-led bundles with Fashion and Health & Beauty add-ons to lift average order value.
- Run promotional experiments for Home & Kitchen to improve revenue contribution without over-discounting profitable items.
